Daguerreotypes, Ambrotypes, Photographs, and Ivorytypes.

H. L. GOODWIN,
TAKES pleasure in informing the public that he has returned to Frankfort, and taken the Gallery of C. A. Clark, adjoining the Telegraph Office; and that he would be pleased to wait on those wishing perfect Likenesses of themselves or friends; he is confident he will be able to please the most fastidious in any kind of picture they may desire, from a life-size portrait to the smallest Daguerreotype, or Ambrotype. Also, Daguerreotypes of deceased persons enlarged to the size of Life and Colored in Oil and satisfaction given.

I am also prepared to make those gems of Photography, the Daguerreotypes, which is truly the most durable small picture yet produced.

The Ivorytype (made only at this Gallery) is acknowledged by all to be the most perfect style of Photographic picture ever presented to the public. In brilliancy of tone and color, delicacy of finish, correctness of likeness, and durability, it is far superior to the best miniature on Ivory.

FOR PRESIDENT,
JOHN C. BRECKINRIDGE,
GOVERNOR OF KENTUCKY,
FOR VICE PRESIDENT,
GENERAL JOSEPH LANE,
OF OREGON.

TUESDAY.....OCTOBER 16, 1860.

☞ We call upon the Bell-Douglas papers of Kentucky to name even one friend of Breckinridge in Pennsylvania that failed to sustain Foster—name either the newspaper or the public man that did so. In the event of their failure to do this; as they have repeatedly, since the election, charged that the Democracy of Pennsylvania deserted their colors, they ought to be denounced as a set of impudent liars. The truth is that prior to the election, such men as Hon. R. W. Thompson, and Jas. G. Bryant, Bell men of Indiana, and Forney & Co., Squatters in Pennsylvania, openly opposed a union of the conservatives in the State elections, but we have yet to learn that Breckinridge men, anywhere in the North, have opposed a fair union to beat Lincoln. We defy the whole fraternity of Bell-Douglas editors to name an instance where the Breckinridge committees of the North have refused to unite upon fair and honorable terms with the other conservative parties to compass the defeat of Black Republicanism. It cannot be named. In the late arrangement in New York, the Breckinridge men have submitted to palpable injustice—have put up with less than their share of electors on the union ticket—have borne the insolent demeanor of Richmond, Caggar & Co., to prove their willingness to unite in any measures to prevent Lincoln from carrying the Empire State and thus securing his election.

In reference to the State of Indiana we have the concurrent testimony of both organs of the Opposition in this State, that the larger portion of Bell men voted straight for the Black Republican candidate. Here is what the Louisville Democrat of 12th inst., says:

In the last election, a large number of the Bell men, in accordance with their principles voted for Hendricks, a still larger number, notwithstanding the exhortations of the free friends of the Union in their party, voted for Lane.

And here is what the Louisville Journal, of the same day, says:

We have no complaints to utter against our friends in Indiana for the course they thought fit to pursue in the election of Tuesday. They doubtless acted from the best of motives, but we confess them to be set to work immediately and endeavor to rectify the injury which has been inflicted upon the country. They can throw the blame, yet again, on Lincoln. The whole result may yet depend upon them.

In our next issue we shall publish Mr. Thompson's letter in full and we shall then show at whose door the blame of defeat in Indiana must lie.

The next House of Representatives.

The indications are that the Republicans will be in a decided minority in the next House of Representatives of the United States although they now control that body having made Mr. Pennington, Speaker. The Democrats have elected the following members in the free States:

Oregon.....1
Ohio.....8
Pennsylvania.....8
Indiana.....4

To these may be added the five Southern districts in Illinois, the two members in California, and at least ten, if not more, in New York, making, in the free States, at least thirty-six, with a chance of others in New Jersey, Wisconsin, and Michigan. Every member from the slave States, save Blair, of St. Louis, will oppose the Republican party. The House will thus stand:

Democrats in the North.....37
Anti Republicans in the South.....89

This gives a majority against the Republicans in the House of fifteen, as it consists, in all, of but two hundred and thirty-seven members. The United States Senate—which meets after the 4th of March—will also contain a majority opposed to the Republican party.

So that, if the Northern Douglasites who are counted with the Democracy in the above estimate can be relied on, the probabilities are very strong that both branches of the National Legislature will be opposed to Republicanism—"a consummation most devoutly to be wished for."

OLD VIRGINIA ALL RIGHT.—A letter from a distinguished Virginian, says the Lexington Statesman, who has taken the trouble to inform himself upon the subject, states that Breckinridge and Lane will carry that State, "even against the fusion of the friends of Bell and Douglas, beyond any contingency." He gives this not only as the opinion, but as the positive conviction of the best informed men of the State. All honor to Old Virginia.

MR. WOST DO IT.—The Maysville Express very pertinently inquires: "Can't our Union friends get JOHN BELL to answer the Norfolk questions explicitly? Accordingly to them, it is of vital importance that the Presidential candidates should answer them. Let us then have an answer from the "Union" candidate."

MEMPHIS AVALANCHE.—This excellent and spirited journal comes to us in a new and handsome dress. Its enterprising proprietors announce that the Avalanche has passed through the hazard incident to the establishment of a new paper, and has reached its present state of prosperity, unembarrassed and not owing a single dollar.

Public Speaking.
M. R. Hardin, Breckinridge Elector for the Fifth District, will address the people of Frankfort and Franklin county, at the court-house, on Tuesday night, the 23d inst., at 7 o'clock.

S. F. J. TRADUE will address the people of Anderson county, in behalf of Breckinridge and Lane, at Lawrenceburg, on Monday, the 22d inst., (Circuit Court day) at 1 o'clock P. M.

A United South.
These apropos remarks are from the Nashville Union and American:

"The Northern States are now a unit in the struggle which threatens the existence of our Government. Why may not the South be so? Are our lives, our liberty, our happiness, less dear to us than the ephemeral triumphs of party? Let the South lock shields and stand in solid phalanx, and the rushing onset of Black Republicanism will be stayed. Never in the history of nations, has the adage been more applicable than at the present: 'UNITED WE STAND, DIVIDED WE FALL.' All is not yet lost. There is but one flag raised which has written upon it principles that are regarded by our enemies as boldly antagonistic to theirs. Let the whole South rally under that flag, and all will yet be well. The wildest maniac can be quieted by the determined eye of his master. Let the South cease her bickering, and show her sectional enemies that she will be equal in rights, and fanaticism will yet cower and shrink from the contest."

Hon. Joseph Lane.
We extract from the Washington correspondent, "Hawk Eye," of the Augusta (Ga.) True Democrat, the following significant answer of Gen. Lane to the question propounded to Mr. Douglas at Norfolk, Va. See the difference between Lane's patriotic answer and the demagogical answer of Douglas:

"I was struck the other day with the difference between 'Old Joe' Lane, as he is termed, and Mr. Douglas. A friend asked the old warrior what he thought of this new doctrine that Douglas had proclaimed in Virginia and North Carolina, 'that he would assist Abe Lincoln to coerce a sovereign State of this Union.' His reply was in the very simplicity of his character and without premeditation. 'I NEVER HAVE AND NEVER WILL DRAW MY SWORD AGAINST A PEOPLE FIGHTING FOR CONSTITUTIONAL RIGHTS.' A noble sentiment never uttered, and would have done credit to Roman virtue in her palmy and brightest days."

JUDGE TANEY'S POSITION.—The Philadelphia Pennsylvania reiterates, upon undoubted authority, the statement heretofore published to the effect that Chief Justice Taney, who pronounced the opinion in the Dred Scott case, declares Douglas' squatter sovereignty doctrine as the rankest heresy. The Chief Justice will support Breckinridge and Lane.

Frankfort Brass Band.
We are indebted to this excellent corps of musicians for a delightful serenade on last Saturday night. The band is now equal to any in the Western country, and we cordially recommend it to the public.

Escaped.
Thos. Evans convicted of the murder of Reynolds, escaped from the jail in this place on Sunday last. We have not heard the particulars of his escape. The Governor has offered a reward of $500 for his apprehension.

To Dress Well.—Persons who wish to dress comfortably and elegantly, should always deal with a merchant who keeps the best quality and neatest styles of goods—with a man who knows when a garment fits, and how to suit and please the taste of his customers. Such a merchant can be found at No. 4, Masonic Temple, Louisville. M. B. Swain has on hand a superb assortment of summer goods, from which a gentleman can supply his entire wardrobe in the most fashionable style of the season, and at prices which cannot fail to prove satisfactory.

The Issues in the Present Presidential Campaigns laid down by W. H. Seward.

The Hon. William H. Seward was received by his friends in Boston lately with considerable enthusiasm. He addressed the crowd from the balcony of the Revere House, and in unmistakable terms set forth the issues on which the Republicans are contesting this Presidential election. These issues he declared to be—

I. That they have nominated Abraham Lincoln as their standard-bearer, "confessing the obligations of the HIGHER LAW."

II. That they are contending, "for fear or woe, for life or death, in the IRREPRESSIBLE CONFLICT between freedom and slavery."

III. That "we are now in the last stage of the conflict, before the great triumphal inauguration of THIS POLICY INTO THE GOVERNMENT OF THE UNITED STATES."

IV. "With this victory COMES THE END OF SLAVERY."

Charles Francis Adams, Senator Wilson-ex-Mayor Rice, and several others, made short speeches, endorsing and complimenting Mr. Seward, after he had placed the Republican party upon these doctrines. Wm. Lloyd Garrison and Wendell Phillips could have gone no further into the depths of deep dyed Abolitionism.

The war here announced is not against slavery extension, but against slavery in the States. The "higher law" and "irrepressible conflict" are to be "inaugurated into the Government of the United States" with Abraham Lincoln, and then, says Mr. Seward, "comes the end of slavery."

Seward states the real character of these Republican issues with great confidence, for Abraham Lincoln himself announced the same irrepressible conflict doctrine as a part of his own creed, some months previous to the time when Mr. Seward declared them at Rochester.

Henderson Fair.
The late exhibition of the Henderson Union and Hopkins Agricultural and Mechanical Association held at the first named place was decidedly successful. The award of premiums for needle work and the fine arts, subjects particularly interesting to the ladies, is thus given by the Henderson Reporter:

The Bell-Douglas Troupe.
The following theater bill is going the rounds of the press.

Daily performance at Know-Nothing Hall, of the grand melo-drama of Rule or Ruin; principal character, "Lord Selbach," by Mr. Douglas. Sir Bell's benefit.
Ground and lofty tumbling by Messrs. Foote, Cline, Soule and Johnson.
Comic song, "Gitt and Niggers and Niggers Don't Bother Me," by Messrs. Bell and Douglas.
After which the side-splitting interlude of You Tickle Me and I'll Tickle You. The whole to conclude with the Celebrated Fight of the Kilkenny Cats.
After which, on the first Tuesday in November, there will be a grand stampede by the whole troupe to the tune, Every Man for Himself, Devil Take the Hindmost.
Being positively their last appearance on any stage. Admission, two coin skins! Children half price. N. B.—Niggers free!

☞ Why is a Wide Awake's cape like the Southern extremity of Africa?
Because it's a Cape of Good Hope.—Cin. Gaz.
There are any quantity of Capes more appropriate to the Wide Awake uniform than the tip of Africa—although anything connected with the horns of the "tiger" would suit some members of the party. There is Cape Sable—for the color of the uniform: Cape Fear, for the "phellix" of the party; Cape Horn, for their predilection; Cape North, for the only section of the country they have any interest in, and Cape Farewell, to any hope of electing their candidates.

CHEERING NEWS.—The Maysville Express a leading paper in Northern Kentucky, says: "From all parts of Kentucky, we continue to receive the most cheering news of the return of Democrats to their party, who had been enjoined for a time into the support of Douglas. Finding out that the sole purpose of Douglas is to give Bell and Fremont Kentucky and the entire South, they are abandoning him in disgust, as one unworthy of their countenance or support as Democrats. Let every true Democrat go to his Democratic neighbor, who has been misled by Douglas, and point out the deception that is being practiced upon him, and urge him to stand by the standard of his party. It is a shame that any honest Democrat should be enjoined into the support of his political enemies."

BETS ON ALABAMA.—A friend of Breckinridge and Lane offers the following bets on the State of Alabama:
$1000 that Breckinridge carries the State over both Bell and Douglas.
$500 that he carries it over both, by 2500 votes.
$500 that he carries it over both, by 5000 votes.
$500 that he carries it over both, by 7500. All the bets to be taken together.

Any one desiring to take the above can have his money covered, by depositing with Henley & Co., or the Southern Insurance Company, and notifying the editors of this paper.

MASS MEETINGS.—We publish to-day a list of appointments made for Gov. L. W. Foy and Col. Geo. Johnson, extending from the 15th to the 31st inst., through the 5th and 10th Congressional Districts. The friends of Breckinridge and Lane are requested to greet these able and distinguished champions of our cause with mass meetings at their several appointments. The time is now short, the struggle of incalculable importance, and the people ready to do their duty. Let these meetings be advertised, and let every man vote intelligently. Kentucky must and will stand by the Constitution. Let our own State at least be true to herself, true to her rights.

DESCRIPTION.
The fugitive, Thos. Evans, is some twenty-one or two years of age; five feet ten or eleven inches high, and inclined to be a little stout-shouldered; has light hair; is of a light complexion; has a mole on the left eyebrow, near the outer end thereof; and weighs about one hundred and seventy or eighty pounds; is upon the whole, rather good looking. He is slow of speech, of rather an effeminate and feeble voice.

From the St. Louis Bulletin.

Who is to Blame?
The bogus Democrats profess to consider the news from Indiana, Ohio and Pennsylvania as astounding, but if the election of Lincoln, and the consequent dissolution of the Union, are rendered possible, upon whom, we pray, is the blame to be charged? Who have, for selfish and sinister purposes, striven to disintegrate the Democratic party and, along with it, the Union of these sovereign States? The question is certainly not an unanswerable one. It was surely imperative upon the Democratic party at Baltimore, after the secession of Mr. Douglas and his clique, to reassert the principles of the Constitution, and the original articles of compact, and concession loudly and boldly.

There are after all interests and rights which are superior to any political bargain which may be made. The Union is without doubt invaluable, and none prize it more than the States which have for twenty years endured a systematic aggression, which contemplated the utter destruction of their social fabric. They have patiently endured to it by a long and patient endurance of unexampled wrong. If they are not going to perpetuate this endurance to the extent of dishonor and ruin, surely the fault is not to be charged to their account. If they are to protest against the base treachery of false friends, let Mr. Douglas abide by the usages and prescriptions of the party, none of this evil would have threatened us. The Democratic party was strong in the confidence of the masses. It was all-powerful both in the North and in the South. Its ancient doctrines, safe from interpolation and misconstruction, would have preserved the just equilibrium of power between the contending sections. The producing and manufacturing regions of the country equally would have been content to abide under a common government.

It was in an evil hour when the ambition of Mr. Douglas intervened to disturb this national repose. He wanted to be President. Many a man of greater mental calibre might have been satisfied with a seat in the first deliberative body in the world, in which Calhoun, Clay, Webster and Hayne did not disdain a seat. When the nation failed to acquiesce in the claims of some of these gentlemen to occupy the executive chair, they and their friends, chiefly acquiesced in the decision of the people. They never presumed in consequence to disturb the peace of their respective parties. Differing widely from each other as they did, they never attempted to set up novel theories, and adopt treacherous tactics. It was reserved for Mr. Douglas to do this. It was reserved for him to stomp the country for secession.

It was reserved for him under the deceitful phalanx of adherence to the Democracy, to do more than even the most rampant abolitionist has done to alienate the North from the South. It was reserved for him to bring about a controversy at whose consequences every patriot must shudder.

YOU LOOK IN VAIN,
For a Gray Hair on the Head of a person who uses HEIMSTREET'S INIMITABLE HAIR RESTORATIVE.

You will find, however, on the heads of those who use it, LUXURIANT GOLDSY HAIR OF ORIGINAL COLOR, AND A CLEANS SCALP, NO MATTER AT WHAT AGE OF LIFE IT IS USED. THE FOLLOWING TESTIMONY IS CONVINCING.

MACON, GA., March 23, '60.
Messrs. STEWART & BUTLER, Savannah, Ga.:
I received the package of Heims street's Inimitable Hair Restorative, and after using it some time, can safely say it is the best article of the kind I know of—it will do it all it claims to do, in restoring the hair to its original color and growth.

Respectfully,
JONAS F. BEESLEY.

OFFICE HOME MUTUAL FIRE AND MARINE INS. CO.,
St. Louis, October 29, 1860.
We have used Heims street's Hair Preparation, (Inimitable Restorative) and find it to answer the purpose for which it is designed, better than any other we have ever used before, and can recommend it in the highest terms.

B. B. HENRY,
C. L. CHESTER,
G. V. CROSS.

SAVANNAH, GA., May 19, 1860.
Messrs. W. E. HAGAN & Co., Troy, N. Y.
Gents.—Our firm having sold large quantities of your INIMITABLE HAIR RESTORATIVE, and hearing it so universally commended by many of our patrons in the highest manner as to its "INIMITABLE" qualities, I was induced to give it a trial, having for some years been troubled with falling out of the hair, dryness of the scalp, as well as the additional annoyance of many gray hairs—the scalp being apparently diseased. After faithfully using one small bottle of the Restorative, and finding its good qualities apparent, I commenced the use of the second, and my hair is now in better condition than ever before, and my scalp is healthy. It has stopped falling out, and the scalp has resumed its functions. I most cheerfully recommend your article as having all the virtues you claim for it. In addition to my own case, I can point out at least fifty persons in our city who have had the same experience in its use as myself. You are at liberty to use this letter as you may see proper, and I will be happy to recommend your article personally on any and all occasions. Yours respectfully,
JAMES STEWART.

Of the firm of Stewart & Butler.
"Rejoice ye with gray hairs and bald heads, for the Inimitable will restore the former to its original beauty, and cover the latter with a luxuriant growth."—Troy Budget.
"If you wish to have the real color, instead of the dull rough look which hair-dye imparts, use Heims street's Restorative, which invigorates the roots of the hair and makes it young again, no matter how much it may be faded."—Boston Traveller.

MACON, GA., March 23, '60.
Messrs. STEWART & BUTLER, Savannah, Ga.:
I received the package of Heims street's Inimitable Hair Restorative, and after using it some time, can safely say it is the best article of the kind I know of—it will do it all it claims to do, in restoring the hair to its original color and growth.

Respectfully,
JONAS F. BEESLEY.

We have used Heims street's Hair Preparation, (Inimitable Restorative) and find it to answer the purpose for which it is designed, better than any other we have ever used before, and can recommend it in the highest terms.

SAVANNAH, GA., May 19, 1860.
Messrs. W. E. HAGAN & Co., Troy, N. Y.
Gents.—Our firm having sold large quantities of your INIMITABLE HAIR RESTORATIVE, and hearing it so universally commended by many of our patrons in the highest manner as to its "INIMITABLE" qualities, I was induced to give it a trial, having for some years been troubled with falling out of the hair, dryness of the scalp, as well as the additional annoyance of many gray hairs—the scalp being apparently diseased. After faithfully using one small bottle of the Restorative, and finding its good qualities apparent, I commenced the use of the second, and my hair is now in better condition than ever before, and my scalp is healthy. It has stopped falling out, and the scalp has resumed its functions. I most cheerfully recommend your article as having all the virtues you claim for it. In addition to my own case, I can point out at least fifty persons in our city who have had the same experience in its use as myself. You are at liberty to use this letter as you may see proper, and I will be happy to recommend your article personally on any and all occasions. Yours respectfully,
JAMES STEWART.
